ELECTION INTEREST IN Kentucky is again growing, now that the runoff candidates are sounding their clarion calls. Swope, Republican candidate, is speaking all over the state, sometimes twice in a day. Chandler, nominee of the Democrats, will have the assistance of the national administration when Postmaster General Farley will appear in Louisville October 5, to address the convention of Young Democratic clubs of the state. Both candidates have made glowing promises as to what they will do for education in the state, so it looks like the schools can't lose.

THE ETHIOPIAN SITUATION has turned into a serious affair between Mussolini and the League of Nations. The League drafts a solution to the problem and it does not seem that Mussolini feels the League will be kept and the League is not sure that it wants to do so. It seems that he wants to keep at their diplomatic play enough the war seems should have been.

THE AMERICAN LEGION, meeting in national convention in St. Louis, Mo., has adopted resolutions for the immediate end of Russian recognition on the ground that the Soviet Government has not ceased its sponsorship of "subversive activity" in this country. They also endorsed a policy of active opposition to all Communism, Nationalism, Fascism and "other" forms of terrorism. They also advocated the closing of immigration for a period of ten years and the deportation of foreign agents. The action on these questions would help solve some of our present day problems in this country.

JOE LEWIS made another step toward his heavyweight championship of the world this week when he slaughtered poor Maxie Baer. Fight promoters say that he is on par with that former dark skinned champion, Jack Johnson. Jake reclaimed for the fight totaled over one million dollars, so it's rather a misstatement to say that either fighter is lost.

KENTUCKY got another slice of Federal funds this week when $40,719 was allocated for the use of Works Progress Administration projects. The total of funds will be added $417,955 pledged by various sponsors of the projects submitted.

The band is larger and better than ever before, and the solos by two new members of the band, Howard Eckles, French hornist, and Ralph Schwartz, xylophonist, will feature the program.

There will also be a trombone solo by Paul Young, who is well-known for his ability as a freshman in the concert of the band.

A string group selected from the orchestra, and under the direction of Keith Davis, will present a few numbers. This will be of special interest to the lovers of classic music, and to the students who taking music of any sort.

Kryl's World Famous Band Is To Appear Here In A Concert Monday Night October 7, To Inaugurate The Library Series

The performance scheduled for Monday October 7, 1936, by Kryl's Symphony Band and the orchestra will be the crowning feature of this concert season. Since the first announcement of the band's appearance at the Morehead State Teachers College such unusual interest in the event has been manifested by the whole community that a heavy welcome and an audience that will tax the limits of the auditorium are assured for Kryl and his musicians.

Kryl's success with the masses and the masses alike is easily understood by those who study him. His personal personality, his unaffected manner and his genuine of purpose with him in an instant, response from his audience. DOWNING TEAM READY TO GO AGAINST REDS

Ohio Team Will Seek Revenge For Last Year's 13 To 0 Defeat.

The Morehead Eagles will inaugurate the pepkin season this afternoon at 2 p. m. when they meet the Ohio team at the home of the Rio Grande College on Jayne Memorial Field. The Eagles have been put through three weeks of grueling practices by Coach Downing and are in good condition for the game. The Eagles will have a heavy, charging line and a smart, shifty backfield. The whole team should be several shades darker than last year.

The starting line-up will contain seven sophomores from last year's Crank freshman team. Vinson at fullback will probably do the running and most of the passing. He was one of the best prospects ever to wear an Eagle uniform. Dale was an Eagle sophomore. Dale was probably start at quarterback and will do the punting, will carry the ball and will be a guard back. The Henderson will probably be in the wing positions and should do a lot of pass punting. Thomas should be in one of the guard berths and Vinson will be in the center position in offense and back up in the defense. Carter, another sophomore, will fill a place at tackle and will be plenty tough to stop.

Ryan and Alley, veterans from last year's team, should play a bang line at the half positions. Dale was an Eagle sophomore. Be Appreciative Of Your School

This editorial is not being written in protest against anything nor does it seek to contradict anything. It is rather in the form of an observation. Appreciate your school!

The writer has been in the dormitories of five or six southern schools and in comparison to the majority of such, Thompson Hall is a heavenly abode. Few students appreciate the fact that here on the campus are located some of the best school buildings in the state. Not only do they have a good appearance from the outside but they are nicely finished inside. Some schools look good from the outside but will not bear a close inspection.

Morehead is also fortunate in that it is free from smoke and dust. Some students between the fact that they can not attend a college in some city but anyone who has lived amid city dirt and noise can really appreciate the location of this college. The writer knows of one campus in a southern city where the smoke is so thick in winter that one building is not visible from another, where the lights remain on all morning.

Morehead has a friendly spirit that is not found in larger schools and colleges. There is no arbitrary barrier. One person has the same rights and privileges as another. There are no pretensions. Even faculty members, the gods and goddesses of other institutions, are on the same level as the students. It is not beneath their dignity to be seen in converse with a student.

Be thankful for your school and proud of it!

Graduate Writes Advice To Fresh Brother

Your letter came this afternoon and I was glad to hear from you. I am sure that I have not written you much but had waited until I had heard from you in connection with your activities.

I think it will be excellent training for you to work on the paper. However, I rather doubt if it will prove a good idea for you to jump into a position right off. Too many, as I recollect, had a great deal of experience with newspaper writing and you don't want to fly in the face of the first rule of change you get. Then it will be a good deal of time to do the work right—until it is all worth doing. I can't see that.

Then here, full of all your studies and your scholarship is considered. Don't get into anything that will take so much time that you will lose out on either of these two things. If necessary, drop everything else to take care of your studies and your job. You'll have three more years to fiddle with extra curricular activities. tell me you've gone out for football. I'm very glad for it. I believe you can make good in that game—maybe not this year but with a little training later on. You can't skip the world in a day. Do right by the team and yourself and train and stay capable.

I know it is easy to get rid of money but since you haven't it you'll have to learn to get by on what we can send you. Cut out going to town, if you've started that. Use your nights to study and sleep. It will be hard at first, maybe, but you'll find it pays in the long run. Leave the girls alone, Oh, a date occasionally but not regular or heavy.

Don't sponge on friends. It will show them for you. If you can't afford everything you want or that the school have, do without and forget about it. We want you to have everything we can get you but we can't afford anything right now.

I've been through the mill and I know the ropes pretty well. The best plan of all to win respect and friendship is to attend strictly to your own business, don't spend time loafing and talking too much, do everything you do to the best of your ability and don't try to do too much, and remember I'm right behind you and believe in you 100 per cent. Just don't get too much in love, kid, it will wreck you quick.

Mount on me to help you when you need me and remember that we're counting on you to help us, too. As soon as we can get on our feet we'll make it easier for you until then we're counting on your helping to get there.

Stick to your work, kid, and you'll get along.

Sincerely,

Customer.—Ten years ago I only had to pay ten cents a pound for these prunes.
Grocer.—Not these prunes. These are less than seven years old.

Provd Father.—I want our Willie to be a politician. Friend.—Why?

Father.—He's too big and strong. I'd hate to have him ruin his physique by working.

Maria.—Are they in love?

Father.—They must be. The latest in him describe a ball game and he listens to her telling how her cousin's new dress was made.

Layser.—All right till I take your case. I feel sure that I can get you justice.

Client.—Why, you little nitwit, it isn't justice I want. You've got to get me off.

"My husband must be a strong, silent man, full of grit."

"What you want is a dumb customer."

"Do you have many lines to speak in the new play?"

"No. I take the part of the husband."

Goebel.—Say, kid, how about a large white onion? Isardo.—What do you want it for?

Goebel.—I want to remove the odor of vanilla ice cream from my breath.

Lissen.—Ain't my people funny?

Henia.—Yes, if you sell a man that there are 276, 678,294,241 stars in the universe he'll believe you. But if a sign says "Fresh Paint" that same man will have a personal investigation.

They're like this, ponnessat.

And now and then they kin.

And then they say some foolish thing and then they kin.

THE THEATRE SOCIETY GOER

"THUNDER IN THE EAST" coming to the college Friday, October 4th. Starring Charles Boyer and Marie O'Brien.

Boyer is magnificent as the Marquis Yoriakisa, a Japanese naval commander, obsessed with patriotism who wins a naval battle against an unsuspecting enemy, but realizes that the victory left something to be desired.

Stationed on his ship as a neutral observer is Fergus, a young English officer from whom he tries unsuccessfully to learn where his tactics were of fault. Knowing that Fergus must submit a report of the battle to his superiors, Yoriakisa determines to learn his contents at any cost.

Noting that the young Englishman is attracted to his lovely coquette, little wife, Hinaka, he places his country above his honor and subtly maneuvers the heart and bewildered girl into Fergus's arms.

It doesn't take the handsome Fergus long to completely fascinate her and Yoriakisa is compelled to stand by and watch three lives being wrecked by his own fanatical patriotism. He succeeds in rifting Fergus's deck and learning his cherished secrets. The naval battle in which he puts them to use is undoubtedly the most amazing and realistic thing of the sort ever screened, giving the spectator the uncanny sensation of being an actual participant in this nightmare of sea fighting.

Fergus wins the battle but loses his life and Yoriakisa takes the traditional Japanese way out.

Loughlin Coached Team Shows Up Well In First Tilt.

Prichard High of Grayson defeated a much lighter and inexperienced Breckinridge training school team at Jayne Memorial Stadium last Saturday by a 14 to 0 count. They scored in the second and third quarters and converted both extra points.

Eight of the Eagles played their first game of football. Their inexperienced proved pretty early in the first quarter. They took the ball on the kick-off and gaining on every play, carried it to Grayson's own twenty yard line. On the next play they took the ball on a fumble. Prichard covered the ball for Grayson. They ended the only serious Brock threat.

In spite of several injuries in practice which kept three first stringers on the bench, Coach Loughlin's eleven showed remarkable knowledge of the game for a second year team.

Johnson and Prichard were best for the Eagles.

BY ALEXANDER HOLLIDAY

Fellow students during your past life, have you ever harkened back to 8 or even 10 years, to some event that is outstanding to you, the point is, eleven years ago, a small group of football players took the field, in search of honors, for the first time in the history of Morehead State Teachers College, and the members of that first squad will be in the stands today watching the 1939 edition of the M. S. T. C. Eagles take the field in the opening game of the school's eleventh season.

The year of 1924 brought out the grand total of 193 students in the school, about 15 or 16 of these students were out for the team, and they really worked for the position on the team. It was seldom that a man was taken out of the game and then only when he couldn't stand up. Today there are about thirty men taking the field and battling as in the days of yore for these prized positions.

In those days the main issue was that, and it is today and strategy, and it is not at all uncommon to see a distinctive back strank up a field and fifty pound line-man made a fool out of a big overgrown man. I wanted to get at that, but what I wanted to get at was the fact that each and everyone of us should be at the stadium this P. M. and show the team that we are behind them.

The outcome of the "Boo-Lovin' Line" was taken as a matter of fact by many of the sport officers over the county and a great many are now "I told you so" and others are wagging their heads. There were student reporters of both men and women of them, we are wrong. As for me, I say, "burrah," and never lower to a man who can get right in the same spirit.

Civic Chorus Holds Organization Meeting

Twenty five singers met for the Morehead Civic Chorus Fall organization meeting in the College Auditorium Tuesday evening. Students, faculty, former students, alumni and a very gratifying number of Morehead citizens made up the personnel of this group. L. H. Horner, director of the chorus, urged each singer to bring at least one other singer to the next rehearsal, suggesting that if this plan was followed the result would be a chorus of one hundred voices which is the goal set for the group this Fall.

Raceland Hi Downs Breckinridge 38-0

B o b Fraley, Midget Brock Back Turns In Stellar Performance.

The Ravland High School defeated a light Breckinridge Training School eleven at Raceland yesterday, 38-0. This was the second for a 14 to 0 count last week.

Raceland opened their scoring streak in the first quarter. They tallied one touchdown. They got another in the second, making the count at half-time, 12-0. Two markers were made in each of the final cantos.

The Eagles put up a stubborn defense. Bob Fraley, midget back, played a bang-up game both on defense and offense. He stopped several runners who were off for touchdowns and tipped off quite a bit of yardage for the Eagles. Ben Johnson, another Eagle, did some nice work and helped to keep the score down.

EAGLES GO TO GEORGETOWN

Tigers Lost To Xavier 34-0 In Their Season Opener.

The Morehead Eagles will meet the Georgetown Tigers at Georgetown in their next scheduled game, October 8.

Hard work and plenty of it is being dished out to his squad by Coach Bob Evans of Georgetown. The Tigers last their season opener to the Xavier University team of Cincinnati by a count of 34 to 0. Since no losses were sustained in the Xavier game, and they are being pointed for the Morehead encounter.

Woodrow Griffen, halfback, will be the one the Eagles will have to stop, according to sport writers. He showed to advantage in the opener as a ground gainer, and also as a defensive player. Shields and Turner, Indiana products, will give the Eagles plenty of trouble in the wing positions.

If the Eagles sustain no injuries in the Rio Grande game they will have plenty of time to get in shape for the Tigers. Early predictions are that the Eagles should take Georgetown into camp. If they are successful with the Rio Grande clan.

Some of the old romances of this town seemed to be on the downward slant. There is the professor that never about his Testimonies said professor and the blond down town?

The library seems to have lost its glamour. It is a rare thing to see any "parking" and hand playing in the afternoons depository of knowledge.

There seems to be a great attraction between Pville and Louisa. We often wonder why the Louisa football players fall for the Pville girls. Remember last summer?

John Reasen seems to be undecided and unsettled—they say his interest lies in another part of the state is a little country school room.

Ollie Moore is often heard humming. "I wonder what's become of Sally?"

Walking on the campus is not good form. Lay off, you youngsters.

The clocks are still on the blink. Brute force for classes can't be blamed. Why don't somebody do something?

E. Bell and Kitty are off to a flying start.

Why not cut down on some of the chapel announcements? It would keep some of the folks from going to sleep if some of those long winded—addressers by certain parties were eliminated.

A little romance at telephone 22 downtown is on the bum.

IMPROVEMENTS
MADE ON CAMPUS

Many improvements have been made on the campus during the summer months. The stadium has been equipped with dressing rooms and showers for the athletes. There are showers in every report and furnish a neat addition to the stadium.

New offices are being built on the second floor of the administration building.

Additional playground equipment has been ordered for the training school and will be installed at an early date.

ATHLETES SAY:

"THEY DON'T GET YOUR WIND"

JOSEPHINE McKim, Olympic champion swimmer. "One of my hard and fast rules in connection with smoking," she says, "is that I always choose a Camel. Camels are such a mild cigarette. I can smoke them steadily, and they don't interfere with my physical condition. They never bother my wind. I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

GENE SARAZIN, "It's important to me that Camels are mild. Extra millions are spent for the choice tobacco Camels. They never get my wind or upset my nerves."

LESTER STODOL, U. S. tennis doubles champion. "No matter how steadily I smoke, Camels are so mild that they never get my wind. And Camels have a better flavor."

YOU'LL LIKE CAMEL'S MILDNESS TOO. Your own physical condition—your wind... your energy... the good health of your nerves—is important to you. So remember this about smoking: it is a fact that Camels are more from costlier tobacco. They are so mild you can smoke all you want. Athletes say Camels never get their wind or throw their nerves off key.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS!

Camels are made from finer,
MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOES—
—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.
